

RSBA

Become a member

Thank you for your interest in RSBA – Romanian Society of Botanical Artists.

You can join RSBA by becoming a member:

1. Active member

- This section is dedicated to botanical artists. You can become a RSBA active member if you can demonstrate a high standard of your work through the submitted images.
- All images need to be your own creations, declared as such on your own responsibility. In case it is proven not to be so, you will be excluded from RSBA, with no right of any new submission.
- All works can be in pencil, ink, watercolour or gouache on paper or vellum.
- Photography and canvas painting will not be accepted.
- All works need to answer the particular requests of botanical art: to represent the specimen in real scale, to prove scientific accuracy, chromatically reality and balanced
- 5 works will be sent using the application form on the web site, please take care to photograph or scan them at good quality. The jury is formed by founding members and honorary members. If the answer is negative, you can apply again in one month.

If the answer is positive, you will receive the invitation to become a member. This means also the payment of the annual fee of 45 euro (210ron). The images used in the application will be loaded in your gallery once we have received your payment. The membership is renewed after one year, when we will send you a notification by email. Please keep us posted with any change of contact details. The lack of membership renewal implies its cancellation. A new submission means a new selection procedure. The membership can be cancelled on request, without the return of the payed fee.

2. Supportive member

- This section is dedicated to all who wish to support RSBA, to have access to the information and offers dedicated to its members, as well as to take part to the RSBA activities.
- Any person or company can be a supportive member.
- The membership is validated once the annual fee of 30euro (140ron) is payed, and it is renewing annually, after a notification send by email.
- Please keep us posted with any change of contact details. The lack of membership renewal implies its cancellation.
- The membership can be cancelled on request, without the return of the payed fee.
